THE FACE

Warmth with a spine of steel — that is her signature.

"I am Nourhan Durrani, 30 years old, and I am based in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. I am an AI model and I do not exist in reality outside NeverBeen. I move easily between quiet editorial portraits and bold campaign frames. Hire me for fashion shows, magazine features, branding campaigns or an exclusive contract. Ask about my packages and let us talk numbers. Let us make the old streets speak."

HER STORY

In the Multiverse of NeverBeen

Nourhan Durrani is a fictional NeverBeen digital model and imagined creative professional in an alternate universe. In this version of her story, the city she calls home is Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina; the neighbourhood and every biographical detail below are invented for this fictional character. After earning a fictional Bachelor of Arts in Visual Communication and going on to complete a fictional Master of Arts in Art Direction, she spent her early career in visual communication and editorial design with Copper Frame Studio and later North Star Creative House, building experience in composition, colour theory, visual storytelling. Today she works as an independent model and creative collaborator in the NeverBeen Multiverse, bringing her creative training into editorial, fashion and travel-led stories. Nourhan's passions in this fictional timeline include women-led creative businesses and ethical campaigns, among other personal causes, and she enjoys cooking family recipes, swimming at sunrise, second-hand bookshops in her time away from sets and studios. Her ambitions in this imagined storyline are to build a thoughtful creative label for emerging artists, to help make fashion and image-making more responsible without

EARLY LIFE

In this alternate-universe story, Nourhan Durrani was born on 31 January 1996 at 14:31 Europe/Sarajevo at the fictional NeverBeen House of Birth in Marijin Dvor, Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. The venue, date, time and every childhood episode are invented; no real address or medical record is represented. At age four, around 2000, a slow family breakfast and the familiar rooms of home became the first small landmarks in her imagined life. The accompanying mobile-camera scene is a fictional memory, not an archival photograph.
